Families for Literacy is an educational program for families with children 5 and under whose parents are interested in improving their literacy skills. It is held the 2nd Thursday of every month from 6:00-7:30 p.m.

Free Internet classes are every Monday and Tuesday at the Carnegie Technology Center from 5:00-6:30 p.m. Classes alternate between Introduction to the Internet & E-mail. Call to sign up.

Story hour is every Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. It is for children 5 years old and under. English and Spanish programs alternate weekly. Call to sign up.

Arts & Crafts are for kids 5-12 years old. They are held every day from 3:00-4:00 p.m. and every other Saturday at 11:00 a.m.

Everybody's Reading Book Club We now have two Book Clubs; one in English and one in Spanish. We all read one book per month and then meet to discuss it. The next meeting in English will be on September 21 and in Spanish on September 28 @ 6:15 p.m. at the Robert F. Morales Multipurpose Room at the library. For the month of September Everybody's Reading "Belong to me" by Marissa de los Santos & "The Secret" by Beverly Lewis in English and "Como Agua para Chocolate" by Laura Esquivel in Spanish.

Poetry Club is a club for people 15 years old and older. Participants write and read their poems. It is usually held the 4th Thursday of the month at the main library.
